

LOVEboldly

Case for Support

Our Work

At LOVEboldly, we focus on education & advocacy through our programs and resources. Throughout the year we offer trainings, webinars & online resources for willing Christians to engage with in their journey of understanding faith, sexuality & gender identity. In addition, we participate in annual Pride events & offer consulting services to area churches.

Devoted Seminar

Our annual Devoted seminar was back in person this year with new speakers & sessions to equip ministry leaders to better care for LGBTQIA+ people!

Consulting Services

This year we worked with new churches through our consulting services to help their leadership teams navigate issues surrounding sexuality and gender identity in their congregations.

#AskingForAFriend

This year we expanded our #AskingForAFriend video series into a podcast! You can now watch & listen to our bi-weekly videos where one of our panelists answers a question related to faith, sexuality or gender.

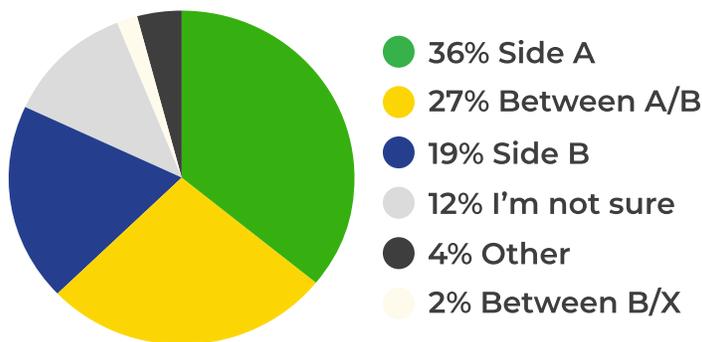

Our Reach

In 2021, between webinars and in-person events, we were able to connect with new audiences across the US and in Europe! Your support means that we can reach new audiences in new locations.

Your Investment

What does it mean to invest in LOVEboldly?

- $ $150 funds a webinar that helps the parent of an LGBTQIA+ child better understand how to come alongside and support their child.
- $$ $500 funds five episodes of our #AskingForAFriend series, which highlights the voices & perspectives of LGBTQIA+ Christians on a range of topics.
- $$$ $1,000 funds our operational overhead for a month, which allows us to focus on creating new resources & programs at the intersection of faith & sexuality.
- $$$$ $9,000 funds our annual Devoted seminar, which helps Christian ministry leaders to make the church a place of safety & belonging for LGBTQIA+ people.

Our Future

Creating New Programs

We have plans to create new conferences & trainings aimed at creating space for LGBTQIA+ people to flourish in the church. We also hope to expand our small group offerings so more LGBTQIA+ folks, their families & allies can find support.

Expanding Our Resources

We want to expand our resources to include a monthly webinar series, guest blogs from LGBTQIA+ folks of diverse backgrounds, new panelists for #AskingForAFriend and more!

Focusing Our Efforts

While we still have plans to work with church leaders, we will be focusing our efforts on reaching everyday Christians who want to see the church become a safer place for LGBTQIA+ people.

Will you be a part of making our work sustainable?

Our work is only possible when it's sustainable. When you invest in LOVEboldly, you're investing in a community of people working to see the church become the safest place for LGBTQIA+ people. Fueling this community is a core group of investors who give because they believe that this work matters. It matters to the overall health of the church & to the individual lives that are impacted by the education & advocacy that LOVEboldly provides. Will you join us?
